1. Examination sessions commence at the time indicated on the final examination timetable. You are required to adhere strictly to the specified times

2. Candidates must complete the online declaration of own work when accessing the assessment tools. Module specific declarations must be submitted together with the assessment piece if so instructed in the examination question paper.

3. Should there be a clash in the examination timetable, you should decide which module to complete during this examination period and only participate in that examination. The other module(s) will be automatically deferred to the October/November 2020 examination period at no cost to you. The university cannot accommodate clashes in the May/June 2020 online examinations.

4. You are permitted to access or download the examination question paper from the MyUnisa site 15 minutes prior to the commencement of the official examination. A further 30 minutes will be allowed at the conclusion of the online assessment to upload your examination responses onto the online platform for further processing. Please ensure that you start the upload process immediately the official session, as indicated on your timetable, concludes. The system will close after the allowed upload time and all late submissions will be rejected.

5. All online assessments will be conducted as indicated on the examination timetable at South African time(CAT), irrespective of where in the world the assessment is written.

6. Students may not communicate with other students, or request assistance from other students during the examination.

7. Plagiarism is a violation of academic integrity and is not permitted and students who do plagiarize or copy verbatim from other published work will be in violation of the Student Disciplinary Code and may be referred to a disciplinary hearing.

8. Examination responses that are submitted with in a password protected PDF will not be marked.

9. Examination responses that are illegible or are corrupted because of a virus will not be marked.

10. Examination responses that contain a virus will not be marked.

11. Non-adherence to the processes for uploading examination responses will not qualify the student for any special concession or future assessment.

12. Students who are completing an open book examination may only use the authorized material listed on the examination question paper.